Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter refers to your application for permanent residence status in Canada received on October 5, 2021. Your application was transferred to the Social Immigration Operations Division for an admissibility assessment due to security concerns, as there may be reasonable grounds to believe that you are inadmissible for permanent residence in Canada. I have concerns that you might be inadmissible pursuant to sections 34(1)(f) for (1.b) and (c) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA):

Section 33 of the IRPA reads as follows:

RULES OF INTERPRETATION

33. The facts that constitute inadmissibility under sections 34 to 37 include facts arising from omissions and, unless otherwise provided, include facts for which there are reasonable grounds to believe that they have occurred, are occurring or may occur.

Section 34 of the IRPA reads as follows:

34 (1) A permanent resident or a foreign national is inadmissible on security grounds for
